Outcomes

- Order Creation & Fall, Incarnation, Gospel and Salvation within a timeline of the 'big story' of the Bible.
- Offer suggestions for what the texts about the entry into Jerusalem and the death and resurrection of Jesus may mean.
- Give examples of what the text may mean to some Christians.
- Make links between the Gospel texts and how Christians mark Easter events.
- Describe how Christians show their beliefs about Easter in worship.
- Make links between Bible teachings and life in the world today.

Why do Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'?

Christians see 'Holy Week' as the most important part of Jesus's life resulting in his death and resurrection.

The Last Supper and other events from Holy week were important in showing the disciples what Jesus came to earth to do .

Christians believe that Jesus rose from dead.

Christians believe that Jesus is still alive today.

Christians remember and celebrate Jesus's last week, death and resurrection at Easter.

Why is this part of the big story called 'Salvation'?

WHAT?

WHY?

What does each one have to do with the story of Jesus' last days? Sort and take pics for books.

Which ones are in the Bible? Where do the others come from?

Play ' Kim's Game '

Can you rank them? Which matter most at Easter, and which matter least? Is the answer different for a Christian from someone else?

Is there anything else you can add to your concept page?
