

Crucifixion

being killed by being nailed to a cross

Easter

Festival when Christians celebrate Jesus

resurrection

coming back alive

Salvation

Jesus rescuing people

Why do Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'?

Christians see 'Holy Week' as the most important part of Jesus's life resulting in his death and resurrection.

The Last Supper and other events from Holy week were important in showing the disciples what Jesus came to earth to do .

Outcomes

- Order Creation & Fall, Incarnation, Gospel and Salvation within a timeline of the 'big story' of the Bible.
- Offer suggestions for what the texts about the entry into Jerusalem and the death and resurrection of Jesus may mean.
- Give examples of what the text may mean to some Christians.
- Make links between the Gospel texts and how Christians mark Easter events.
- Describe how Christians show their beliefs about Easter in worship.
- Make links between Bible teachings and life in the world today.

Christians believe that Jesus rose from dead.

Christians believe that Jesus is still alive today.

Christians remember and celebrate Jesus's last week, death and resurrection at Easter.

What I know now:

What I currently know:

Salvation

Concept Stage 1 - within your own experiences

Celebration

Festivals

Concept Stage 2 - common to all human experiences

Death

Community

Concept Stage 3 - common to more than one religion

God

Sin

Belief

Teachings

Key concepts - we will come back to the ones you don't know throughout this unit.

Concept Stage 4 - particular focus to Christianity

Resurrection

Jesus

Gospel

Easter

Holy week

Palm Sunday

Good Friday

Easter Sunday

Thursday 3rd March

The Big Story: What is the story of Christianity?

Where have you seen this before?

What do you think it is about?

Inside the 'Big Frieze', the following concepts can be found:

- creation
- the fall
- incarnation (God in flesh on Earth)
- the gospel (Jesus' teachings)

Draw a symbol/picture and write the key messages of these concepts.

Incarnation

The Fall

Can you find each concept on the frieze?

Creation

Gospel

In what order do these concepts come in the big story?

What can you spot?

What part of the story is the artist Emma Yates trying to show here?

SALVATION

What does this word mean?

Label things you can see and explain your thoughts about this part of the big story.

Where does Salvation fit into the 'big story' timeline?

Salvation

Draw a symbol/picture for Salvation and add this to the timeline of the 'big story'.

